

DATES FEATURED ON PORT ADELAIDE'S PRIDE GUERNSEY

- 1971: In a time when male homosexuality is still considered illegal, Premier Don Dunstan announces a review of criminal law.
- 1972:
 - Dr George Duncan is thrown into the River Torrens and drowns. Public outrage surrounding his murder triggers homosexual law reform.
 - MP Murray Hill introduces a bill to decriminalise homosexuality after Dr Duncan's murder. The bill was unsuccessful.
- 1973: Adelaide holds first Pride March during Gay Pride Week.
- 1975: MP Peter Duncan introduces a bill that passes, making SA the first state to decriminalise homosexuality.
- 1979: Police files on homosexuals are burned in the Centennial Park crematorium.
- 1984: The Equal Opportunity Act makes discrimination against a person's sexuality illegal.
- 1986: The AIDS Council of SA leads the community in promoting greater awareness of HIV and AIDS.
- 1989: First annual LGBTIQ+ Picnic in the Park is held.
- 1997: First annual Feast: Adelaide's Queer Cultural Festival.
- 2003: Second Pride March is held 30 years after the 1973 March and becomes an annual event.
- 2005: Community leader Ian Purcell AM is awarded the Order of Australia.
- 2006: The SA Domestic Partnerships Act gives equal rights to same-sex couples excluding access to IVF, parenting and adoption.
- 2007: SA Police establishes a Gay and Lesbian Liaison Officer Network.
- 2013: The Spent Convictions Act allows pre-197 homosexual offences to be expunged.
- 2014:
 - The SA Government releases the LGBTIQ+ Inclusion Strategy.
 - First Pride Cup is held
- 2015: The SA Government commits to legal reform to end LGBTIQ+ discrimination.
- 2016:
 - The SA Government passes the Statutes Amendment (Gender Identity and Equity) Bill.
 - The SA Government and City of Adelaide fund the Feast Festival Arts and Cultural Hub.
 - City of Adelaide installs Pride Walk in recognition of the LGBTIQ community's contribution to cultural diversity.
 - First AFL Pride Round
- 2017: The Australian Government passes the Marriage Amendment Bill making same-sex marriage legal.
- 2020: State Parliament passes legislation that abolished the Gay Panic defence... The last jurisdiction in Australia to do so.
- 2022: Port Adelaide Football Club's first Pride Cup Round